

2023 Fees & Payment Schedule

CPC32820 Certificate III in Fire Protection – Apprenticeship Pathway

Government Subsidised for WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Eligibility for a Government Subsidised Training

Fire Industry Training (FIT) is approved to deliver this training as an apprenticeship supported by Jobs and Skills WA funding.

To be eligible for a government subsidy, a person must be employed as an apprentice and the qualification registered with the Department of Training & Workforce Development as suitable for apprenticeship delivery.

For more information and to check eligibility for funded training refer to:

<https://www.jobsandskills.wa.gov.au/>

FIT will assist to determine eligibility prior to enrolment. Original documents will be required as evidence of identity and citizenship.

The fees presented below are for the current year. For apprentices who commenced in previous years, make reference to fee statements reflective to the year of commencement; which can be provided upon request.

Course Fees

Course Fees are the actual contribution a student makes to the cost of their training, which may include fees for tuition, materials and amenities fees. Fees are calculated in accordance with the relevant funding authority requirements and will be advised to the apprentice prior to enrolment.

PLEASE NOTE: The student tuition fees are indicative only and are subject to change given individual circumstances at enrolment. Additional fees may apply such as Student service and resource fees.

Fee Amounts

Generally, apprentices will be required to make to three payments:

CPC32820 - Certificate III in Fire Protection – Apprenticeship Pathway
1 st Year	2 nd Year	3 rd Year	TOTAL
$942.50	$1,368.25	$1,095.25	$3,406.00

Apprentices will be invoiced at the commencement of each year.

If apprentice's academic progression falls outside of the normal three-year course structure, they will be provided with a personalised fee statement, prior to completion of the enrolment process. Apprentices with outstanding fees, may not be able to progress with their training blocks.

Fee Exemptions

An apprentice's eligibility for any fee exemption will be assessed throughout the enrolment process.

- Apprentices who are of secondary school age, but not enrolled with a Secondary School, are eligible for a part exemption
- Full exemptions apply to:
 - An apprentice where payment of the contribution fee would cause extreme financial hardship. This can only be waived through the enrolment process
 - Units of competency achieved through Credit Transfers
