

2024 Fees & Payment Schedule

CPC32820 Cert. III in Fire Protection – Apprenticeship Pathway

Government Subsidised for NEW SOUTH WALES

Eligibility for a Government Subsidised Training

Fire Industry Training (FiT) is approved to deliver this training as an apprenticeship supported by NSW Smart and Skilled funding.

To be eligible, a person must be employed as an apprentice and the apprenticeship registered with Smart and Skilled NSW. For more information and to check eligibility for funded training refer to:

<https://smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/are-you-eligible>

FiT will assist to determine eligibility prior to enrolment. Original documents will be required as evidence of identity and citizenship.

The fees presented are for the current year. For apprentices who commenced in previous years, make reference to fee statements reflective to the year of commencement; which can be provided upon request.

Course Fees

Course Fees are the actual contribution a student makes to the cost of their training, which may include fees for tuition, materials and amenities fees. Fees are calculated in accordance with the relevant funding authority requirements and will be advised to the apprentice prior to enrolment.

The student tuition fees as published are subject to change given individual circumstances at enrolment.

Fee Amounts

Under the NSW Government fee-free apprenticeship initiative, NSW apprentices commencing their training on or after 1st July 2021 may be eligible for fee-free training. For eligible apprentices neither the student or the employer pay for the qualification.

For more information, go to <https://vet.nsw.gov.au/choosing-vet/fee-free-apprenticeships> or contact FiT.

Other costs

Other costs that may be incurred by the student would include, but are not limited to, the purchase of:

- Personal Protective Equipment
- Australian Standards
- Stationery (including pens, pencils, rulers, protractors, etc).

These costs are not charged by FiT. Students will be provided with a list of requirements prior to the commencement of training.
